

Partners in Imagination

The prophet Isaiah tells the story of God's holy mountain.

Mountain Sunday paints a picture of our world transformed by love. God is always creating new visions of a healthy, peaceful world with enough for all.

■ How can we help make these dreams come true?